NEWPORT,

BY CHANSTON & NORMAN 127 THAMES STREET.

FRIDAY MORN'G, AUG. 27, 1862.

ELECTION MONDAY, NOV. 8. Whig National Nomination

FOR PRESIDENT, WINFIELD SCOTT, ... OF FEW SERSET, FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. CHAHAM, Electors.

BELLENA HARRIS, of C MAAC P. HAZARU, of Newport. AMOS B, SHITH, of Providence, CHARLES ALLEN, of North Eingstown,

Remember the Concert by Alfred Jaeli, this evening, at the Dining Hall of the Ocean House. This is the last Concert which he will give in Newport, and it may be the last' apportunity which meny of the visitors now here may have of hearing him, as he designs returning to Europe very speedily. It will be a brilliant Concert, and we expect to see the Hall full, very full. Jaell will entapture all lovers of music by his performances on this occasion.

OF The Germania Musical Society will give their last Concert of the seas on on Monday, combined with a Solree danisanie; and we do not doubt but it will be well visited; at least do these skilful and excellent musicians deserve as much encouragement as our variors are able to bealow, for we dare boast to have the best company of musicians of all bathing places in the Union, and should do all to isduce them to return the coming season. It is a rare thing to find such a number of young men in an association of this kind, that for a length of time, an they have proved these four years, agree so well together and where every one of them. Is a perfect gentleman. Their programme for the next concert includes several new pieces that will be performed by them for the frit time, und the pieces are of such a character, as can only be well executed by first-class musicians; and when have they ever done a thing, that has not been done will? We shall remember them long after they are gone, and sineerely wish to see them bere again.

the Old Stane Mill, and wish to see the lot on which it stands laid out as a public square, should call at the Atlantic House, and look at a next and beautiful pait of the lot faid out se a square; it is well done and displays much taste in the arrangements of its walks, &c. It was executed by Messrs. Schuberth & Atwater, of Providence.

By Henry Bandt, Esq., has entered upon his duties as Agent of the Germania Musical Society, in the place of Mr. Heimamuiler who resigned. Mr. Bandt is a German, who has long been in this country, and speaks the English language very fluently. He is a thorough gentleman, and will no doubt make a popular agent for these excellent mu-

GEN SCOTT WITH BIS SOLDIERS- Testimoney of a Democrat. In our paper of Inst Saturday we copied from a Michigan paper an article which gave the particulars of a little incident that pecurred during the Florida war. The substance of the article was, that at night, after a weary march, a party was detailed to areet a shelter for the commander in chief, who had not yet reached the ground. Shortly after the work commenced. Gen. Scott came up and inquired of the working party what they were deing.-He was informed, when he immediately replied: " Well, cease work, and return to your company. I can participate in the privation of my men. I will not have a weary soldier to perform a moment's unnecessary labor for my convenience." And on the sod of the evergiads, under the open sky, the gallent old chief slept with his faithful soldiers.

This article happened to meet the eye of a gentleman now living in Covington, who served under Gen Scott in Florida, and who has up to this time acted with the Democratic party. 'This gentleman called at our office on Tuesday last, to say that he was one of the men detailed to erect the shelter for Gen. Scott, and that he knows the statement that Gen. Scott requested the men to desirt from the work to be true. Our informant cave that Gen. Scott was a strict disciplinarian, but that as a general thing, the discipline was enforced rather against the officers than the privates and that Scott was uniformly kind and attentive to the wants of his

Our informant further said that had Cambeen nominated he would have. supported him, but that between Gen Scott and Gen. Pierce he must vote for his old Florida commander .- Corington, Ky., fairnel.

WONDERFUL BOOAFE. - Lothrop Smith, of New Orleans, a few days since white on a visit to the White Mountains, made a mis-step over the precipice near the Flume House, into the abyse below He fell into the pool, from which, by great presence of mind, through the water was icy cold, and he was encumbered with his clothes, he made his escape by swimming to a crag of the rock on the level with the water. Here, we are told, he was lodged about forty feet beneath the distance from which he fell. There was no means of ascent except by ropes, which were procured by riends who were with him at the time of the fall. He fastened a rope around his body, and was raised aloft, drenched end bruised, but the only human thing, we presume, that ever came from the pool alive after such a fall.
